A Mystery Explained.
The papers contains frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls

Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleep-

I consider it the best Cough Syrup in

MCCULLOCH ENDORSED.

HE IS ELECTED MAYOR OF WACO
FOR ANOTHER TERM.

The Returns—Celebration Last Night—Fireworks—The New Aldermen.

The great struggle is over and C.
C. McCulloch is mayor for another term. The people have vindicated him of the foul charges that were heaped upon him and his slanderers are despised of all men.

The events of election day were fully reported in THE NEWS of yesterday. The day on the whole was a quiet one and there was little excitement except at the polls of the First and Fourth wards. At these boxes there was considerable challenging.
In the Fourth ward there was a hundred or more voters who did not arrive in time and a strong effort was made to keep the polls open after the limit prescribed by law but the judges were firm and the voting closed promptly at 6 o'clock.

The above figures are from the tally sheet and will be found to be correct.
It shows that Mayor McCulloch received 164 votes more than the next man, Judge West. It also shows only 3,031 votes polled which is about 500 less than was polled last year in the city treasurer race and nearly 1,000 more than was polled in the mayor's race of two years ago.

AT HERZ'S.
About 8 o'clock last night the returns began to come in. The Second and Fifth wards were first to come in and followed by the First, Third and Fourth. As soon as the first return was received the crowd began to gather on Fourth street to read the returns as Alf Herz posted them in his window.

The crowd soon saw that McCulloch was theirs again, and they testified their delight by testing their vocal organs to fullest extent.

Russell Kingsbury was called and made a congratulatory speech, which was loudly cheered. He was followed by Capt. M. B. Davis, who made one of the best speeches of his life. He lauded McCulloch, the people's choice, to the skies and consigned his enemies and slanderers to the depths of infamy. He was cheered loud and repeatedly.

Mr. Davis was followed by the "alderman from the First," Bill Poage, who began his speech with the remark, "before you stand a cowpuncher." He was the same Bill and not at all changed by his success.

His speech was most sensible and well received. He advocated the forgetting of all campaign animosities, to forgive and forget. He was followed by Messrs. Fred Kingsbury, Pecor, Yarbrough, Weslow and others.

THE PARADE.

About 9 o'clock a band started up "Dixie" and the din and uproar which it caused was positively deafening.

At the close of the music an open carriage appeared with Mayor McCulloch and Bill Poage seated within.
The carriage was soon surrounded and Mr. McCulloch called upon for a speech. He responded very briefly on account of great exhaustion. The crowd next called for Mr. James B.
Baker, who responded in a splendid speech.

The band then started ahead of the carriage and the parade went up Austin avenue to Sixth street, thence to Washington and down that street to Fifth, thence up that street to Columbus and Mayor McCulloch's residence.

The crowd then took the spacious lawn and elevated their champion to the gallery and called for another speech. He responded and made a brief speech of thanks.

He was followed by Messrs. Davis, Kingsbury and others.

Three times three cheers were given and the crowd then dispersed amid the glare of hundreds of skyrockets and Roman candles.

THE ELECTED.

Of Mayor McCulloch it is needless to speak. He is simply the people's choice and was re-elected for another two years.

In the First ward W. A. Poage, famously known as "Bill" was elected alderman by a handsome majority.
Mr. Poage is one of the handsomest and most popular men in Waco. He is a good man and beat another good man in a fair race. He will be favorably heard from in the council.

In the Second ward it seems as if no one dared to enter the race with Mr. Lacy for he was alone. He has made a good alderman and will no doubt continue to do so.

Mr. Lee Slaughter, the new alderman of the Third ward is an old citizan and evidently holds the confidence of the people of that ward by the way they voted for him.

Dr. J. C. J. King, the alderman of the Fourth ward is one of the best known physicians in the city. A thorough business man, is he and Waco will be benefited by his presence in the council chamber.

Mr. Latimer, the Fifth ward's new champion, was twice nominated by the voters of his ward and though the friends of many other good men tried to get them to run they saw that Mr.
Latimer was the people's choice and he had the race all to himself.

Everything is quiet today and business has dropped into its accustomed ruts. It is presumed that Bill Poage and Geo. Willig will go fishing as agreed. The defeated candidates are all keeping more quiet than they have for a few weeks past.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

STRUCK IN THE HEAD WITH A HAMMER.

A Carpenter Violently Assaulted and has His Skull Badly Fractured by a Fellow-workman—His Recovery Doubtful—The Assailant Makes Good His Escape—Officers in Hot Pursuit.

Mr. J. T. Mann, a carpenter who boards at W. T. McCrary's on South Third street, was struck on the head yesterday with a hammer by a fellow-workman and his skull badly fractured. He was taken to his boarding house and Dr. Foscoe called in who removed seven pieces of broken skull and dressed the wound. A News reporter called to see the injured man this morning to get the details of the matter and found him doing well, but when asked about it refused to make a statement. The following facts were, however, obtained from Mr. W. T.
McCrary: Mr Mann and number of other mechanics were at work on buildings built near the Woolen Mills, and among them the assailant, whose name for prudential reasons, will not be given at this time. This man went to work a little before time and was asked by Mr. Mann, in a jocular way, if he could not do work enough in nine hours, which so enraged him that the murderous assault as above related and with the above effect was, without further provocation, so suddenly made that the injured man had no time to defend himself.

The assailant at once put on his coat and left for parts unknown, and while the officers are in hot pursuit he has not yet been apprehended.

While the injured man is resting easy at this time his wound is of a very serious nature and grave doubts of his recovery are entertained.

SUPERIORITY.

Not Equality, but true Superiority over all other Blood Remedies.

Mercury enters into the composition of many blood medicines, while with others iodide of potash is the principal ingredient. Both these substances are poisons, and while in some instances they lessen the severity of the ravages of blood poison, their use in the end are more harmful than otherwise. Bear in mind Dr.
John Bull's Sarsaparilla is strictly a vegetable compound, yet its effect on blood

DON'T USE

filled with poisonous germ matter is like water on the forked tongues of a flaming fire. It subdues the evil instantly, even when other medicines have failed. Again, Bull's Sarsaparilla is frequently used after the system has become poisoned by the use of mercury and potash. It quickly eliminates these mineral poisons from the system, thus preventing and curing mercurial rheumatism, potash sores, etc. In all syphilitic and scrofulous affections, Bull's Sarsaparilla is a true panacea. The sequelae of blood poison, such as salt rheum, eczema, king's evil, scald head, boils, carbuncles, itch, sores, rheumatism, neuralgia, etc., all permanently disappear if the use of Bull's Sarsaparilla is continued a sufficient length of time.

MERCURY

W. A. Smith, Paducah, Ky., writes:
"I was down sick with malarial fever for over a month. The doctor gave me too much calomel and mercury, and when I began to get better rheumatism set in, and my left leg was made crooked. I thought I would be a cripple for life, but an acquaintance got me to use Bull's Sarsaparilla, which gave me strength and cured my rheumatism, and now my leg is nearly straight again and I walk on it very readily."

AND POTASH.

R. B. Walton, Cairo, Ill., writes: "I experienced the horrors of blood poison for four long years. I had three running sores on my body as large as my hand that would never heal, and over a dozen smaller ones.
My hair and eyebrows and whiskers all came out and I looked like a perfect scarecrow. I became discouraged trying medicines, but as a last hope tried Bull's Sarsaparilla. The use of 28 bottles made me well, but there are scars on my body that look like they had been burns."

Children like Dr. John Bull's Worm Destroyers. They taste good and never fail to remove worms if there are any. Price 25 cents. Try them.

"The demand for Smith's Tonic Syrup is unequalled by any other child medicine made. My sales are immense." F. J. Dreher, Leesburg, Ill.
